proportioned, and worked out in all its complications with much care and skill."—Athenaeum.

"This novel may be described as a comedy of life and character, and in the changing society to which we are introduced the author shows abundant

EDWARD STANFORD'S ANNOUNCEMENTS.

LIFE and her CHILDREN: Glimpses of Animal Life, from the Amoeba to the Insects. By ARABELLA B. BUCKLER, Authoress of "The Fairy-Land of Science," "A Short History of Natural Science," "Botanical Tables for the Use of Junior Students," Crown 8vo, with upwards of 100 Illustrations, cloth gilt, gilt edges, 6s.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

"The main object is to acquaint young people with the structure and habits of the lower forms of life; and to do this in a more systematic way than is usual in ordinary works on natural history, and more simply than in text-books on Zoology. For this reason I have adopted the title 'Life and her Children' to express the family bond uniting all living things, as we use the term 'Nature and her works' to embrace all organic and inorganic phenomena; and I have been more careful to sketch in bold outline the leading features of each division than to dwell upon the minor differences by which it is separated into groups. I have made use of British examples in illustration, wherever it was possible, and small specimens of most of the marine animals figured may be found upon our coasts at low tide."

PREHISTORIC EUROPE: a Geological

Sketch. By JAMES GEIKIE, LL.D., F.R.S., &c., of H.M.'s Geological Survey of Scotland, Author of "The Great Ice Age." Medium 8vo, with Maps and Illustrations. [In November.]

INDEX GEOGRAPHICUS INDICUS: a

Gazetteer of India. By J. F. BARNES. Super-royal 8vo, with Eight Coloured Maps.

The Index will embrace about 20,000 Names of the most Important Places of India, spelt agreeably to the authorised spelling; the tabulated statements give full information, in a clear and concise form, of all the Districts and Native States throughout India, arranged under their respective Divisions and Provinces, while the Cantonnments have been arranged under their respective Military Divisions and Districts.

The mass of Geographical, Statistical, Political, and other information, up to date, thus put forward in a handy and most convenient-sized volume, and specially arranged with a view to easy reference, will supply a desideratum in Educational Establishments, and in every official and private library in India, as well as in Europe.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"It is quite fitting that such a work as 'Romola,' caviare to the general, but prized exceedingly by the more cultured and intellectual classes, should be given to the world in a form worthy of its genius. Such an édition de luxe now lies before us. The printing by Messrs. Clay, and the paper, made expressly for it by Messrs. Dickinson, leave nothing to be desired, while the drawings by Sir Frederick Leighton, admirable in themselves, seem to realise (as illustrations, however meritorious, so rarely do) what the author has imagined."—Times.

"The magnificent edition of 'Romola' which has just been produced by Messrs. Smith, Elder, & Co. is at once a triumph of typographical art and the monument of a genius which is still without a rival among contemporary writers."—Standard.
